

Year 6 - CST tells us to uphold the dignity of the person.

We are eloquent: we speak up for the poor and we speak of their dignity.

Each person is made 'in the image and likeness of God.' Thus, it follows that 'every person's life and dignity must be respected and supported from conception until the end of their natural life on earth.'

Caritas in Action

St Mother Teresa of Calcutta upheld the dignity of the person by treating everyone well.

I will never tire of repeating this: what the poor need the most is not pity but love. They need to feel respect for their human dignity, which is neither less nor different from the dignity of any other human being.

Mother Teresa

In year 6 we uphold each other's human dignity by treating each other with respect.

In year 6, we uphold the dignity of those less fortunate than us by giving money to CAFOD and by praying.

Then God said, 'And now we will make human beings; they will be like us and resemble us.' So, God created human beings, making them to be like himself.

Genesis 1: 26-27

Year 6 - CST tells us to uphold the dignity of the person.

We are truthful: we speak up for those who suffer prejudice or persecution.

The most deadly poison of our times is indifference. And this happens, although the praise of God should know no limits. Let us strive, therefore, to praise Him to the greatest extent of our powers.

— Maximilian Kolbe —

St Maximilian Kolbe gave his life for another man when they were both in Auschwitz. He upheld human dignity and spoke out when he saw injustice.

RED WEDNESDAY – Some people are still persecuted for their faith. We uphold their dignity by recognising them and praying for them.

Year 6 are truthful when we see injustice and name it for what it is so as to uphold human dignity. We read a book about racism and always speak out truthfully when we encounter it. Later in year 6 we will read a book about refugees. We know that they are simply seeking safety. We will uphold their right to do so and speak up truthfully for them when others do not.

Pope Francis, Evangelii Gaudium: "All Christians, their pastors included, are called to show concern for the building of a better world."

Dear children, let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth.
1 John 3:18

In year 6, we are truthful. Being truthful shows respect for others and respect for ourselves.
